Shield Newsletter – Kathleen Brooks

PTSA newsletter "The Shield": The deadline for the June issue is this Friday, May 18. As always, if your article is going to be delayed for any reason, please let me know.

This is the last newsletter for this school year(2006-07) and my final newsletter. However, I am happy to say that Marie Collins, whose student will be a sophomore next year, has volunteered to be the layout & design editor for the 2007-08 school year.

After Prom – Rhonda Molleur

Music Boosters – Debbie Bebee

School Liaisons

Math – Patricia Lee

Social Studies – Cindy Hall

Mr. Yates reported that teachers are working to prepare students for AP tests and the HSA exam. The NSL teachers are offering lunch support on Wednesdays. The department thanks the PTSA for providing funds for an iPod raffle and snacks!

English, Foreign Language, Media – Holly Buchanan

Science – Michael Binder

Science teachers have been busy preparing their students for AP exams and HSA tests. Come May 22, the focus shifts to preparation for county final exams.

The AquaEcosystem is a go and will be installed in the new courtyard.

70 students have signed up for AP Environmental Science next school year. They will expand the base of the Green Team (e. g., for planting grasses and releasing fish). The number of field trips will increase, including an overnighter to Smith Island, along with the Aquarium, Fort McHenry, the National Zoo, and hikes to various streams.

Art Music – Amy Gearhart
